THE CHARTERED INSTITUTE OF ARBITRATORS (SINGAPORE)

is pleased to present a talk on
Presenting Expert Evidence: What Arbitrators Want (and Need) To Know
by Jon Prudhoe & Garry Crossley

Date: Wednesday, 26 April 2017 • Time: 5pm – 7pm

*Venue: RPC Premier Law, 12 Marina Boulevard,
#38-04, MBFC Tower 3, Singapore 018982.*

ABOUT THE TALK

An opportunity to hear from the experts themselves! Jon Prudhoe and Garry Crossley of Navigant's Global Construction Practice are both highly sought after Delay and Quantum experts, with extensive experience of consulting and giving evidence on construction, energy and oil & gas matters. They will speak on the all essential topic of how to marshal and present expert evidence for optimal results. The talk will encompass the duties and role of experts in disputes of various natures and complexities; how experts work and interact with counsel/clients; and the effective presentation of evidence, including cross-examination strategies, the utility of joint testimonies, and "hot-tubbing" the experts.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Arbitrators, lawyers, counsel and expert witnesses.

OUR DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER

Jon Prudhoe is a highly sought after Delay and Quantum Expert in Asia Pacific and Managing Director within the Global Construction Practice. He specialises in the resolution of complex contract disputes and, with over 70 expert appointments, is well versed in giving oral evidence under cross-examination in litigation and arbitration proceedings including expert witness conferencing ('hot-tubbing').

Garry Crossley is a Managing Director in the Global Construction Practice of Navigant. He advises clients internationally on project and programme delivery, strategic issues, contractual risks, contract strategy and due diligence. Garry has over 25 years' experience in Utilities, Oil & Gas, Petrochemicals, Infrastructure, Transportation, Building and Construction, and Aerospace sectors throughout the Middle East, Asia, Eastern and Western Europe, and Africa.
